

Christelle Reyes
Camp Fire USA Orca Council
2004 Wohelo Award Recipient

Christelle Reyes is passionate about touching the lives of others. “My growth as a leader has developed from the experiences I’ve had doing community service. All the relationships I’ve built stemmed from another person’s uplifting smile,” says Christelle.

Christelle has been Chairperson of a food drive that brought in over 8,000 nonperishable food items. She also represented the student body on the Learning Improvement Team at Curtis High School, where she is a senior. Christelle is also a member of National Honor Society, the ASB Vice President, and Company Commander of the CHS NJROTC unit. Christelle has earned the title of Honor Cadet at Whidbey Island’s Leadership Academy for all Navy JROTC units of the Northwest. Of the top five, she was the only female cadet selected. Christelle was also chosen to attend Girl's State to represent her school at Central University while learning about leadership, government, and the politics that operate in our country today. While at Girl's State, Christelle was elected Secretary of State. She is currently serving as CHS' Associated Student Body Vice-President.

A six-year member of Camp Fire USA, Christelle has completed both Discover and Horizon levels. She was activities co-chairman for Camporee 2003: Treasure Island and Grand Council Fire, 2004. She has also received an Honorable Mention Award from Colgate's Youth for America program and the Presidential Award for Community Service. Christelle has earned Torch Bearer Awards in sewing, money management, and investing. She attended Washington Business Week at Western Washington University, and co-led "Team Up For Sara", a very successful drive that added hundreds of potential donors to the National Bone Marrow Registry.

Christelle aspires to attend the United States Naval Academy. She plans to graduate as a part of the Medical Corps Program with the purpose of obtaining an M.D. and specializing in pediatrics.
