

Kelly Strand
Camp Fire USA Orca Council
2004 Wohelo Award Recipient

Kelly Strand, a senior at Curtis High School, says, “Camp Fire has taught me that hard work, dedication and persistence will help me achieve my dreams and goals.”

Kelly has been a member of Camp Fire for eight years, and has earned Torch Bearer awards in cooking, sewing and travel. In addition to her WoHeLo Award, Kelly earned two Presidential Service Awards. Within the God & Country Program, she earned both the God & Church and God & Life awards. In 2003, Kelly attended Camp Fire’s National Convention in Chicago, Illinois. She also participated in Washington Business Week at Western Washington University. Kelly volunteered for the past several summers as a counselor at Hidden Beach Day Camp and with the youth swimming program at Naval Station Bremerton.

Kelly’s athleticism led to her participation on CHS bowling, swimming and lacrosse teams. She is also a member of both National Honor Society and National Honor Roll. She plays the flute, and has been a part of CHS band program for six years. Kelly is an avid member of TATU (Teens Against Tobacco Use) and serves on the University Place Youth Court. She worked for the Tacoma Rainiers this year and hopes to work for them in the upcoming baseball season.

Kelly plans to continue her education at a four year university where she will major in sports management. Go Mariners!
