

Spotlight on Korina Kaelin WoHeLo Recipient 2007

Korina is a senior at Emerald Ridge High School. She chose to advocate on behalf of Camp Fire, FFA and Theatre Program.

Korina chose to advocate on behalf of Camp Fire by leading a part of the planning committee for the Council Fire ceremony. She taught "Burn Fire Burn" to Discovery and Horizon members for this ceremony. Korina served as a lifeguard at Camp Smokey and used the advisory time to promote Camp Fire to her peers.

Korina chose FFA (Future for Agriculture) as her second advocacy. She led the scrapbook committee, and taught new members how to judge livestock. She participated in a service project to clean up Beaver Pond and promoted FFA for her Speak Out by advertising in school announcements and hanging posters.

The Emerald Ridge High School Drama & Theatre Program was Korina's third advocacy. She led as a Stage Manager for the spring musical. "Bye, Bye Birdie" and taught proper application of stage make-up. Korina provided service by assisting in set construction and spoke out by various advertising tools such as T-shirts, posters, flyers, and announcements.

Korina is also an active member of the Titans Swim Club and ERHS swim team. She will be attending the University of Hawaii in the fall.
