

Victoria Reyes
Camp Fire USA Orca Council
2004 Wohelo Award Recipient

Victoria Reyes is passionate about working hard and excelling as a leader. “By holding leadership positions, I can help others. I believe I have the strength to be in charge when there is a job that needs to be done,” says Victoria.

Victoria was co-chairperson of NJROTC’s “Operation Feed 5000” food drive. She also served as chairperson of a clothing and food drive held in Seattle, both of which benefited the homeless. Victoria represents the youth in her church, St. Francis Cabrini, by being a member of the church leadership team. This group helps plan youth trips, retreats, and community service activities. Victoria was also one of only two females selected to attend Leadership Academy on Whidbey Island. She was also chosen as one of only five Honor Cadets from a field of over 150 cadets.

As a six-year member of Camp Fire USA, Victoria has completed both Discovery and Horizon levels. She has also received the Presidential Award for Community Service. Victoria has earned Torch Bearer Awards in sewing, money management, and investing. She attended Washington Business Week at Western Washington University, and co-led “Team Up For Sara,” a successful drive that added hundreds of potential donors to the National Bone Marrow Registry.

Victoria aspires to attend the United States Naval Academy and start her career as a Marine Corps officer.